TOM COLLAZO

PAINTINGS & NOTE CARDS

Tom Collazo paints landscapes of the Arizona borderlands region and views from traveling the world. His work is in original oil paintings and note cards. He also makes the frames for his paintings. He is available to paint scenes that capture the land or home that you love.

Tom was born and raised in New Jersey, Maryland, and Florida, and moved to Arizona with his wife Debbie in 1974. The natural world—and how people have lived in it through time—have always been of interest to him.

He devoted 30 years to conserving and managing wild places in Arizona through The Nature Conservancy. His love of art was inspired early on by his grandfather, who was a commercial artist. Studying art history at Northwestern University included many visits to the Art Institute of Chicago. Over the last ten years, he has worked primarily in oils to try to capture places and experiences meaningful to him. Many of the scenes he paints are from the Chiricahua Mountains in Southeast Arizona, where he and Debbie spend time when not in Tucson.
